Ludivine “Ludi” Perrin-Stsepaniuk, Owner and President of Ovia Entertainment a premier production company specializing in aquatic events, production and high-level training, established Ovia Mermaid Academy as a segment of the company’s Training Division.

“Mermaid tails have become very trendy, they are easily accessible at stores and online,” states Perrin-Stsepaniuk. “The aura of becoming a mermaid is very enchanting. However, what many fail to consider is that swimming with a tail can be challenging for kids as well as adults.”

Open house activities will include complimentary 20-minute introductory classes, children under the age of 18 must be accompanied by parent/guardian to participate. Those seeking to take the class must bring their own swim suit and towel. They can bring their tail or rent one on site.

Stone Sports General Manager Robert T. Laing explains, “Our heated indoor training pool is the perfect venue for the mermaid classes. The large pool features a shallow area with generous benches and steps for beginners to become acclimated with the tails. As students’ progress, there is plenty of room for advanced swimmers to stretch their tails and hone their skills.” Stone Sports retail shop features a supply of tails for rent and to purchase as well as swim suits, goggles, swim caps, and nose clamps.

As for the fitness aspect, playing and swimming like a mermaid is a great, low-impact form of exercise especially for the core, arms and legs. Its excellent for strength and cardiac training and increases one’s flexibility.

Perrin-Stsepaniuk recommends students take a series of classes to become skilled. The most popular program is Mermaid Pearls, the program takes student mermaids from beginning to high-level mermaid skills and maneuvers. At the completion of the program each student will receive a certificate and string of pearls. The academy also offers beginner synchronize swimming classes for Mermaids interested in learning group routines.

“Much like any swimming activity, even if your loved one has taken mermaid classes, they should always be supervised by a responsible adult,” stresses Perrin-Stsepaniuk.

Ovia Mermaid Academy is a fun interactive activity for youth birthday parties, group events, holiday festivities and family milestones.
